PETALING JAYA: Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's Twitter followers have reached the one million milestone and the Prime Minister wants to meet his one millionth follower.

Tweeting from the handle @NajibRazak, Najib noted that his followers had reached one million on Monday night.

"Saat yg istimewa bagi saya di twitter. Terima kasih kpd semua! Kita 1Malaysia (A very special moment for me on Twitter. Thank you everyone! We are 1Malaysia)," he tweeted.

Minutes later, he followed up with another tweet by saying he had requested for his one millionth follower to be identified.

"Saya harap dapat berjumpa nanti. Kita 1Malaysia. (I hope we can meet later. We are 1Malaysia)," he tweeted.

The two tweets had racked up more than 1,500 retweets and were marked as "favourite" by 393 followers as of 5pm yesterday.

The Prime Minister is extremely popular on social media.

Since he joined Twitter in September 2008, Najib has posted 3,097 tweets.

His Facebook account passed the one million mark in May this year.

To date, he has some 1.23 million likes on his Facebook.
