KUALA LUMPUR: Regional cooperation in solving domestic conflicts is important to maintain peace and stability in the region, Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin said.

The Deputy Prime Minister said offering a helping hand by taking part in the conciliation process to help neighbouring countries was important towards solving domestic conflicts.

"Such cooperation is the best way to promote lasting peace and stability.

"It was in the spirit of regional cooperation that Malaysia spent time and effort to contribute towards the peace process in the southern Philippines," he said in his speech before closing the 3rd Umno International Forum here Tuesday.

He said unmanageable domestic conflicts would have far-reaching consequences on regional peace and stability.
