KUALA LUMPUR: Discipline and loyalty are the two main factors that will determine the success or failure of Umno, said party president Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

He said whether or not members were willing to adhere to the rules and regulations would determine whether Umno and Barisan Nasional win in the next general election.

"Discipline in an organisation requires us to accept with an open heart any decision made by the leader. Even if you do not agree with it, air your view through the proper channel.

"More importantly, once a final decision has been made, carry it out to the best of your ability," the Prime Minister said in his presidential address at the opening of the Umno general assembly on Thursday.

He also urged Umno leaders to be sincere in providing service to the people in view of the coming general election.

"The 13th general election is not a normal general election. It will decide on the Malaysia that we will leave to our children - between a Malaysia that is steeped in shared values or a Malaysia that is backwards and divided by an unseen wall that is smeared with distrust and prejudice," he said.
