KUALA LUMPUR: Over 2,700 delegates converged at the Putra World Trade Centre for the 2012 Umno general assembly, Thursday.

The highlight of the first day of the assembly is the presidential address by party president Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

He is expected to outline the party's approaches in preparing for the coming general election.

The assembly will start with the raising of the party and Malaysian flags at 8am, followed by the tabling of the report and minutes by the permanent chairman.

Three resolutions will be tabled and debated during the three-day assembly.

This year's assembly is the last for the party before the 13th general election.
