KUALA LUMPUR: More than 200 people including schoolchildren attended a twin Ramadan and Merdeka programme at the National Library here recently.

The event saw the staff, schoolchildren and other guests, singing patriotic songs and attending a seminar on patriotism.

A total of 2,500 flags were also distributed during the event.

The host also prepared packets of bubur lambuk for those present.

The National Library also distributed the bubur lambuk to six charity homes.

The charity homes were Persatuan Kanak-Kanak Terencat Akal Selangor and WP in Brickfields, Rumah Anak Yatim Nasuha in Gombak, Rumah Anak-Anak Yatim dan Saudara Baru Shifa in Setapak, Rumah Titian Kasih in the Titiwangsa constituency, Pengasih Malaysia in Bukit Tunku and Rumah Nur Salam.
