Bishkek, September 10 / Kabar /. Kyrgyz Prime Minister Jantoro Satybaldiev met with former Malaysian Prime Minister Dr. Mahathir bin Mohamad, who is in Kyrgyzstan on a working visit September 9-12, 2012. The Information Policy Department of the Government's Office of the Kyrgyz Republic reports.

The Prime Minister of the Kyrgyz Republic, welcoming the guests, said that Kyrgyzstan highly appreciate the contribution of Dr. Mahathir bin Mohamad to the economic development of Malaysia and Southeast Asia.

J. Satybaldiev briefed the guest about formation of the new government in the republic, which is to solve a series of socio-economic problems of the country. "Knowing your rich management experience, we are interested in receiving valuable advices and recommendations. Malaysia, being an agricultural country, today, has become one of the most developed industrial nations of the world", said the Prime Minister expressing confidence that the visit of the ex-prime minister to Kyrgyzstan bilateral relations reach a new level.

Dr. Mahathir bin Mohamad said that Malaysia is interested in deepening bilateral relations with Kyrgyzstan. "Indeed Malaysia has huge experience in attracting investments and creating jobs. We are ready to share the experience", he said.
