KUCHING: The Government Transformation Programme (GTP) Roadmap 2.0 Open Days were held in Sabah and Sarawak to share its proposed initiatives with the people.

Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Seri Idris Jala noted that the efforts under the seven National Key Results Areas (NKRAs) would continue to be enhanced to ensure that the people enjoyed the fruits of the transformation.

The GTP Roadmap 2.0 will outline the new initiatives for the second horizon of the GTP, which will be carried out from 2013-2015 to drive the nation towards achieving developed and high income nation status.

A series of labs were conducted in April and May this year to identify the key issues and new areas of growth opportunities.

The public was able to review key initiatives, which have been planned for the GTP Roadmap 2.0, and offer their suggestions and concerns.

All public feedback will be reviewed and incorporated into the finalised GTP Roadmap 2.0, which will be unveiled later this year.
