MEDAN, Feb 2 (Bernama) -- The Raja Muda of Perlis, Tuanku Syed Faizuddin Putra Jamalullail launched the Visit Malaysia Year (VMY) 2014 at the Sumatera level, here Saturday night.

The event was held at the Soechi International Hotel and was attended by Malaysian and Indonesian officials as well as tour operators.

Also present were the Tourism Malaysia director in Medan, Nor Asikin Haron and Perlis police chief, SAC Zull Aznam Haron.

Malaysia's Consul-General in Medan, Ahmad Rozian Abd Ghani in his speech hoped that the launch would assist the country's target to attract 28 million tourists next year.

In Medan, several events had been planned to promote VMY 2014 including the Formula 1 race, Water Carnival, Malaysian International Shoe Fair, Colours of 1Malaysia, and the Malaysian International Tourism Flora Night Float, he said.
