KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 3 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak Thursday expressed his condolences to the family of Datuk Temenggong Kanang Anak Langkau on the death of the national hero.

"His deeds to the nation will always be remembered," he said in his latest tweet.

Kanang, 68, died at the Sarawak General Hospital in Kuching at 1.45am due to a heart attack.

Kanang, who was born in Sarawak, became the pride of the nation for his bravery in fighting the communist terrorists when he was with the Malaysian Armed Forces from 1962 to 1983.

In his tweet, Najib said the bravery and fighting spirit of the warrior will be inscribed in the country's history permanently.

"Farewell, national warrior," he said.
