MUAR, Feb 6 (Bernama) -- PAS supporters' condemnation of Kedah Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Azizan Abdul Razak's presence at a My Beautiful Malaysia event in Sungai Petani, last Sunday is said to reflect their narrow-mindedness.

Umno Youth deputy chief Datuk Razali Ibrahim said they failed to realise that the programme organised by the federal government was for all Malaysians regardless of their political affiliation and for the benefit of everyone.

"They cannot differentiate between Datuk Seri Azizan as a party (PAS) leader and him as the head of a state government and representing all the people in Kedah.

"Hence, their irrationality," he said after handing out the Bantuan Rakyat 1Malaysia (BR1M) to recipients in the Muar parliamentary constituency, here, Wednesday.

Some PAS supporters have hit out at Azizan for joining Umno and other BN component party leaders at the My Beautiful Malaysia event after the party members were reminded by some top party leaders not to participate in any programme organised by the BN government.

Razali said the PAS supporters' narrow-mindedness was a waste and they should look at things with an open mind instead.
