SEMPORNA, Jan 6 (Bernama) -- Rural and Regional Development Minister Datuk Seri Mohd Shafie Apdal has urged federal and state civil service officers and staff to remain fully committed in implementing government policies and initiatives.

He said their commitment was most vital in ensuring that the country continued to develop and remain competitive in tandem with development at the global level and ensure the well-being of the people.

"The contribution of civil servants at all levels is necessary to realise government policies. If the government delivery system is stifled, the people cannot enjoy the benefits of the development programmes," he said.

Shafie, who is an Umno vice-president and the Member of Parliament for Semporna, was addressing a gathering of civil servants and outstanding students of the Semporna Risda College, here, Saturday night.

He said the failure of civil servants in improving the delivery system would hamper Malaysia's determination to remain competitive at the international level.
