KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 9 (Bernama) -- Food. Glorious food. Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak is looking forward to delicious food in Penang Sunday.

The prime minister also expressed excitement to be with Penang residents to watch Korean dance phenomenon Park Jae-sang or Psy, perform his mesmerising Gangnam-style dance moves, and local singer Shila Amzah render her hits on Monday.

Psy will be the highlight of the 1Malaysia Chinese New Year Open House organised by Barisan Nasional at the Han Chiang College.

An estimated 80,000 people are expected to attend the four-hour open house, beginning 9am.

"Looking forward to delicious food in beautiful Penang tomorrow, and also excited to be with Penangites watching Psy Oppa and Shila Amzah perform," he said in his Twitter Saturday.

Sunday, Najib will also be attending a few events such as MCA's Chinese New Year Open House and Hi-Tea with Chinese community leaders.
