TANJONG KARANG, Feb 10 (Bernama) -- Selangor Barisan Nasional (BN) deputy chairman Datuk Seri Noh Omar said he does not dismiss the possibility that DAP will side with PAS' Syura Council, which is reported to have rejected Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim for the prime minister's post should the opposition coalition win the upcoming general election.

Noh, who is also Agriculture and Agro-based Industry Minister, said it was public knowledge that in 1996, DAP chairman Karpal Singh said in Parliament that he had evidence of Anwar's involvement in a sodomy case and that the party may reveal it should Anwar become prime minister.

"It is not impossible that DAP will come forward with the evidence if Anwar becomes prime minister," he told reporters after attending a 1Malaysia Licence Aid (BL1M) briefing at the Padang Astaka, here Sunday.

Noh was asked to comment on a front-page report in Mingguan Malaysia today which reported that PAS'Syura Council (highest decision making body in PAS) had rejected Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim for the post should the opposition win the GE.

However, the report said that although the council's stand on the matter could not be verified, it was allegedly made during a closed-door discussion involving several council members recently.
