KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 10 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today wished a blissful Chinese New Year to all Malaysians.

Najib, who will be celebrating Chinese New Year with the people in Penang this evening, said he was looking forward to having Penang Laksa and Nasi Kandar.

"Wishing every Malaysian a blissful Chinese New Year. Gong Xi Fa Chai!

"Looking forward to having Penang Laksa and Nasi Kandar this evening and to celebrate Chinese New Year with all Penangites," he said in his latest tweet.

This morning, Najib joined more than 10,000 people from of all walks of life to enliven MCA's Chinese New Year (CNY) open house held at the Sri Johor Flats field in Cheras here.

Besides celebrating Chinese New Year in Penang this evening, he will also attend the Maulidur Rasul celebration at Masjid Kapitan Kling and visit the famous nasi kandar shop "Nasi Kandar Beratur" in George Town tonight.
