KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 11 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's son Norashman, displayed his fluency in Mandarin during the 1Malaysia Chinese New Year (CNY) Open House in Penang, Monday.

Norashman, 22, or nicknamed Ashman, took the opportunity to wish Happy Chinese New Year to the guests, before his father delivered a speech at the state Barisan Nasional organised event.

"Good morning dear friends. I wish all of you a Happy Chinese New Year. May all your wishes come true.

"In the olden days people used to say, a one-day plan starts in the morning, a one-year plan starts in spring and a life-time plan depends on effort....

"I hope everyone will continue working towards achieving the 1Malaysia objective. Thank you. Gong Xi Fa Cai," said Ashman, who attended a three-week course at the Beijing Foreign Studies University in 2010.

He also sang a Mandarin song during an event at Kuala Lumpur City Centre once and appeared in a CNY radio ad with Najib recently.
