PAPAR, Feb 14 (Bernama) -- Parliament will only be dissolved when all quarters, including the people, are ready for the polls, said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

Asked how close is the dissolution of Parliament, the prime minister said, "Very soon, very soon, do the job first, do not worry."

"Now I am on the ground explaining the policies and direction spearheaded by BN (Barisan Nasional).

"We want the people to understand that a vote for BN is a vote for the country's transformation agenda and a vote for peace and stability for a brighter future," he told reporters after attending the people's gathering at padang pekan here, today.

On his meeting with state BN leaders yesterday, Najib, who is also BN chairman, said there was no serious problem facing them except for matters pertaining to coordination and personality.

"On the whole, I am satisfied with the level of understanding among Sabah BN component parties," he said.

On the choice of BN candidates in the 13th general election, Najib said the BN had almost finished selecting the candidates.

"We have to do background and security verifications and also check on any reports from the MACC (Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission) and others before we finalise the list," he added.
