

BN Will Receive Good Support From The People, Says Abdullah
Bernama
26 January, 2013

KEPALA BATAS, Jan 26 (Bernama) -- Former prime minister Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi is confident that the Barisan Nasional (BN) will receive good support from the people in the 13th general election.

He said that generally the party leaders, especially the prime minister who is also BN chairman Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, had worked hard in ensuring that the rakyat continued to give their support to the BN.

"Generally, I think the BN can get good support. But if you ask me the percentage, I don't know.

"The leaders of the party, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak really, really worked hard," he told reporters after giving out 'angpow' and aid to senior citizens in conjunction with the Chinese New Year, here today.

He said this when asked on the chances of the BN in the 13th general election which is fast approaching.

When asked whether the party could get the two-third majority in the coming general election, Abdullah said: "I cannot make any prediction. But as a member of the BN, I certainly would like to see our party win."

Earlier, Abdullah, who is also the Member of Parliament for Kepala Batas, handed out RM100 angpow and basic necessities to 220 senior citizens in the Kepala Batas parliamentary constituency.

-- BERNAMA

Copyright © 2013 BERNAMA

Source: <http://www.bernama.com/bernama/v6/newsindex.php?id=924348>