KUALA LUMPUR, March 15 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has promised to bring more development to Kelantan, if given the mandate to administer the state in the coming 13th General Election.

He said the people of Kelantan had long been waiting for development in the state.

"I am confident, the people of Kelantan have been waiting for so long to see development in their state," said Najib in his Facebook account.

He also expressed joy over the rousing reception for his visit to Kuala Krai Maktab Rendah Sains Mara (MRSM).

More than 45,000 people attended the 'Leadership With the People Session' at the Kuala Krai MRSM which was one of the programmes of the prime minister's one-day working visit to Kelantan.
