TANAH MERAH, March 15 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said the people, especially Muslims should reject the opposition including PAS in the upcoming general election because they committed seven major sins, among them allowing the word "Allah" to be used by non-Muslims and not keeping promises.

The Prime Minister said their other sins were allowing DAP leaders to get land in the Lojing Highlands, indiscriminate clearing of forest in highlands and PAS compromising on its own struggle.

"Tian Chua's sin (PKR vice-president) regarding the terrorist intrusion into Lahad Datu and the unholy political cooperation between PAS, PKR and DAP) make up the seven big sins committed by the opposition.

"If before I announced seven major projects (for Kelantan), today I want to let you know the seven big sins committed by them," he said at a "Bekwoh" (Gathering with the People) programme at Sekolah Menengah Tanah Merah 1 here today.

Also present were Kelantan Umno chief Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed, his deputy Datuk Dr Awang Adek Hussin, Kelantan MCA chairman Datuk Seri Dr Ng Yen Yen, Kelantan People's Progressive Party (PPP) chairman Datuk Nik Sapeia Nik Yusof and Tanah Merah Umno, Datuk Ikmal Hisham Abdul Aziz.
