KUALA LUMPUR, March 29 (Bernama) -- In its endeavour to defend Malaysia's sovereignty, the Malaysian Maritime Enforcement Agency (MMEA) has scored major successes against piracy in the Straits of Melaka, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said today.

"The MMEA has achieved many successes in combating pirates in the Straits of Melaka. We are committed to defending the nation's sovereignty," he said in his latest tweet today.

Yesterday, MMEA Air Operations Branch director First Admiral (Maritime) Datuk Zammani Mod Amin told Bernama in Langkawi that MMEA had gained international recognition for its competence in combating piracy in the Straits of Melaka.
