SHAH ALAM, March 8 (Bernama) -- The Kuala Lumpur High Court has fixed March 20 for case management of the defamation suit by Election Commission (EC) deputy chairman Datuk Wan Ahmad Wan Omar against PAS deputy president Mohamad Sabu.

The plaintiff's lawyer, Abu Bakar Isa Ramat said the legal action was instituted on March 5 following alleged slander and libel by Mohammad Sabu or Mat Sabu and four others through the Harakah newspaper's Feb 1-3, 2013 edition under the heading "Wan Ahmad Tak Boleh Dipercayai" (Wan Ahmad cannot be trusted).

He said the other four defendants were PAS secretary general Datuk Mustafa Ali; Harakah printers, Angkatan Edaran Enterprise Sdn Bhd; Harakah editor in-chief Ahmad Lutfi Othman and article writer, Aziz Muda.

The case would be presided by Justice Lee Heng Cheong, he told the press at Wan Ahmad's residence here today.

In the alleged article, Mohamad Sabu was reported to have called for the plaintiff's resignation to restore the people's confidence in the EC.

Mohamad Sabu had also claimed among others, that Wan Ahmad had played a role together with other individuals in the 'Project IC' in Sabah to allegedly orchestrate a victory for the Barisan Nasional in the election.
