KUALA PENYU, April 8 (Bernama) -- The Barisan Nasional (BN) manifesto is the best undertaking by BN and can be translated in the next five years.

Wanita Umno Exco Datuk Azizah Mohd Dun, who said this, added, that the undertaking was not merely a sweet promise but something which would be carried out.

"BN is a party which is proven in looking after the welfare of the people since so long. Currently, through the transformation programme, BN ensured all that are planned are implemented systematically for the benefit of all the people.

"The people must be confident in the capability of BN, and the manifesto, launched by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, which can be ably implemented in the next five years.

BN's promises are promises kept, not merely sweet promises," she said.

Azizah, who is also Beaufort Division Wanita chief, said this at a function in Kampung Tempurong, here, today.

During the function, Azizah also received membership forms from Salleh Suntim as head of the 20 Parti Keadilan Rakyat members who left the party to join BN.
