KUALA LUMPUR, April 4 — The Barisan Nasional (BN) manifesto for Election 2013 will be focused on improving the living standards of the people and the economy, Datuk Seri Najib Razak said today.

The prime minister also said that he was "cautiously optimistic" that BN would "win big" in the 13th general election, but stressed that the ruling coalition had to work hard and minimise internal problems.

"We commit to promises made," Najib told reporters after the Umno and BN supreme council meetings at the Putra World Trade Centre (PWTC) here.

"Based on national transformation, the manifesto's emphasis will be on improving the living standards of people and improving the economy," said the BN chairman, adding that BN's manifesto would be unveiled this Saturday at Bukit Jalil here.
