TEMERLOH, April 7 (Bernama) -- Pahang Umno leaders have welcomed the Barisan Nasional (BN) manifesto announced by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak yesterday, saying it proved the coalition's commitment towards the people's welfare and national development.

"The construction of one million affordable houses in the next five years proves the BN government's concern for the people, allowing the low and middle income group to own houses," Kuala Krau Umno division chief Datuk Ismail Mohd Said told Bernama here today.

He said the government's plans to reduce company and individual income tax would also help reduce the people's burden and encourage more companies to invest and increase economic growth.

Raub Umno division chief Datuk Shahiruddin Ab Moin said the people were happy with the contents of the manifesto as it met their aspirations.

"The pledges announced by the prime minister will be fulfilled for the people. The increase in 1Malaysia People's Aid (BR1M) to RM1,200 and aid for youth worth RM600, proves the BN continues to care for the people," he added.
