KUALA LUMPUR, April 12 (Bernama) -- The Barisan Nasional (BN) will ensure that the Siamese community continues to enjoy various privileges just like the other Bumiputeras if the coalition continues to get the mandate in the 13th general election (GE13), said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

In his message to the Siamese community in conjunction with the Songkran celebration or the community's new year Saturday, the Prime Minister hoped that the Siamese community in the country would strengthen their determination and resolve to continue to work harder for their own prosperity as well as that of their family, community and the country.

"In your joy to usher in the new year, I hope members of the Siamese Bumiputera community will not forget to discharge their responsibility to vote when the time comes," he said in his blog, www.1malaysia.com.my.

Najib hoped the Siamese community would be wise in discharging their responsibility as voters so that "we can pass on to our family a peaceful, stable and sovereign nation".
