KUALA LUMPUR, April 12 (Bernama) -- MCA secretary-general Datuk Seri Kong Cho Ha today cautioned party members to beware of circulating rumours and unconfirmed reports to avoid falling into the traps set by the opposition parties during the 13th General Election.

"Instead, we must base our facts on the announcements made by the party's central committee," he said in a statement.

Kong said all MCA members should bond together and be of one mind in facing the general election.

"My comrades, at this crucial time we must put aside all our differences and disagreements, and work as one for the good of the MCA and the Barisan Nasional so that we can bring about an outstanding victory to the BN coalition," he said.
