KUALA LUMPUR, April 13 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today promised that efforts to boost the potential, capability and capacity of all civil servants will continue to ensure unhindered national development.

The Prime Minister, in his latest Facebook entry, said: "The Barisan Nasional (BN) government recognises and appreciates the role of civil servants as pioneers of change in Malaysia."

A commitment to continue upholding civil servants welfare was included in BN's "Aku Janji" (manifesto) launched by Najib on April 6.

According to the manifesto themed "A Promise of Hope", BN will introduce a Transformative Salary Scheme for civil servants. This includes revising allowances and providing a three per cent special salary movement for those who have reached their maximum salary, should no salary revision be done.

Meanwhile, Najib, through Twitter, said the future of civil servants working on contract basis would also be guaranteed by the government.

In BN's Aku Janji, the government promised to extend their contract period and absorb efficient staff as permanent employees.
