KUALA LUMPUR, April 17 (Bernama) -- The Barisan Nasional (BN) Selangor manifesto promises a better life for all races in the state, said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

Hence, the prime minister urged the people to join hands with the BN in the quest to accelerate Selangor's progress.

"Tonight, I will be launching a manifesto for Selangor which promises a better life for the people of various races in the state. Let us join hands to ensure Selangor's continued progress," he said in his Facebook posting Wednesday.

Najib tonight launched the manifesto which outlined seven core thrusts and 56 pledges which focused on easing the burden of the people and improving their quality of life.

The BN, among other things, promises to create a new corridor, the Selangor Global Logistic Hub, stretching from Port Klang to Kota Raja and the KL International Airport (KLIA) in Sepang which aimed at attracting foreign investment and generating 560,000 job opportunities for the people of Selangor.

The seven thrusts in the manifesto are namely, brighter future; more concern and caring community; safer and more prosperous quality of life; more affordable housing, more innovative and competitive Selangor; more progressive Selangor; and more environmentally-friendly and cleaner Selangor.

On BN candidates in Selangor, he said most of them were new faces who would uphold the principles of the government transformation agenda and strive to make Selangor a better state.
