KUALA LUMPUR, April 22 — Former Selangor Menteri Besar Tan Sri Muhammad Taib joined PAS today, bolstering Pakatan Rakyat's (PR) campaign to retain Selangor in Election 2013.

Muhammad, who helmed the country's wealthiest state from 1986 to 1997, said Malaysia and Selangor had enjoyed development under Barisan Nasional (BN), but stressed that it was time for change.

"Children will be messed up if development is soulless," Muhammad told reporters at the PAS headquarters here.

"Look at Shah Alam. Which party can restore the soul? It must be a party that fights for religion," he added.
