GEORGE TOWN: Over 400 people from the Penang media fraternity gathered to meet and dine with prime minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak for a special Chinese New Year Media Night at G Hotel in Persiaran Gurney here earlier.

Najib then tossed Yee Sang with 16 Penang-based newspaper editors, Barisan Nasional state chairman Teng Chang Yeow, state Umno chairman Datuk Zainal Abidin Osman and other state BN heads.

Also present were state BN representatives and coordinators.

Najib surprised many by leaving his table, joining the crowd at the buffet line, sharing laughs with journalists and photographers as he walked past.

Many enjoyed sumptuous food and caught up with other members of the Penang media fraternity in what was considered a rare opportunity to brush shoulders with the country's top leader.

Later, Najib took an after dinner stroll along Persiaran Gurney promenade where he greeted the people and distributed ang pau to children.

He also visited the nearby foodcourt where he had earlier told senior reporters he was hankering for some Penang pasembur.
