GEORGE TOWN: Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin has urged the Barisan Nasional machinery to work harder as the polls are only "days or weeks" away.

He also called on all Barisan's aspiring candidates in the coming general election not to sabotage each other and to unite.

He said it was very possible for the coalition to wrest Penang back from Pakatan Rakyat.

Muhyiddin was addressing the Barisan machinery Tuesday during a one-day visit to the state.
