KOTA KINABALU, April 23 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak arrived here Tuesday for a two-day working visit to Sabah.

The aircraft carrying the prime minister and his wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor touched down at the Kota Kinabalu International Airport at 10.55 am.

Sabah Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman and his wife, Datin Seri Faridah Tussin and Barisan Nasional (BN) component party leaders were on hand to greet Najib and his wife.

Shortly after arrival, the prime minister and his wife left for Papar with a helicopter to attend two gatherings, namely in Kuala Penyu and Bongawan town.

He will later travelled to Kota Belut to attend another gathering at Datuk Musbah Hall, Taun Gusi before attending a dinner hosted by the Federation of Chinese Associations at the Hakka Hall here.

On Wednesday, Najib is scheduled attend a gathering in Tenom before visiting the Keningau Sports Complex and Ranau in the afternoon, and returning to Kuala Lumpur at about 5 pm.
