JITRA, April 23 (Bernama) -- The 13th General Election is the best time for Kedah to return to Barisan Nasional (BN) as the PAS state government had not carried out their responsibility for the past five years, Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin said today.

The Deputy Prime Minister said the Kedah government was only eligible for a Grade E as their report card was not impressive at all and they had failed to develop the state.

"The next five years are critical as we want to make Malaysia a high-income nation. It's going to be hard work," he said after the foundation laying ceremony for the Jerlun Sports Centre in Sanglang here.

He added that it was not wise to maintain the opposition coalition as the government because they were not capable of developing the state.
