SEGAMAT, April 25 (Bernama) -- Felda's emergence as one of the biggest oil palm plantation companies in the world was due to the Barisan Nasional (BN) government's visionary leadership, said Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin.

He said if Malaysians wished to see Felda continued to be successful and the welfare of the settlers well taken care off, BN must continue to be given the mandate through the 13th general election.

"Felda's success up to the global level is due to leaders which had the vision and courage like the country's second prime minister, the late Tun Abdul Razak Hussain."

Muhyiddin said this at a leader-meet-the-people event at Dewan Putera, Felda Palong Timur, here, Thursday.

He said Felda settlers should look back at the sacrifices of the national leaders like Razak, who mooted the idea of setting up Felda.

He also urged the settlers including the second generation who have benefited from the result of the struggles of the past and present leaders to think rationally, not emotionally, on May 5 so as to ensure BN remains in power.

Muhyiddin said under the BN government, Felda would continue to grow rapidly to fulfil the aspirations of the past leaders who struggled for its establishment.

Meanwhile, he said BN was a political party that always kept its promises to the people.

He added that the BN manifesto was not the same as the opposition's, as the latter was only good at making promises with no intention to fulfil them.

Also present at the event were the BN candidates for the Segamat parliamentary seat Datuk Dr S.Subramaniam, for the Sekijang parliamentary seat Anuar Manap and for the Buloh Kasap state seat, Norshida Ibrahim.
