TAWAU, April 25 (Bernama) -- Three hundred and sixty election workers including 10 from the media for the Tawau P190 seat exercised their voting right today through postal balloting.

Tawau P190 assistant returning officer Isnen Mohd Said said they started casting their votes at the polling centre, the Tawau Municipal Council office, from 9am until 5pm.

Radio Televisyen Malaysia (RTM) Tawau cameraman Hasbi Salamat, 32, who is based in Lahad Datu, said he felt awkward when casting his vote as it was the first time he was doing so.

"Prior to this, I never realised how crucial the vote is in determining the the country's administration," he said.

For RTM Tawau reporter Tamri Jamil, 39, the flexibility to vote earlier would enable him to concentrate fully on his assignments during the actual polling day, May 5.
