KUALA LUMPUR, April 28 (Bernama) -- Bernama TV, the 24-hour news channel, will broadcast a special documentary on the achievements of Malaysia's sixth Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak this Tuesday.

The 30-minute Malay-language documentary titled 'Janji Ditepati' (Promises Fulfilled) will highlight the efforts, developments and achievements made by Najib after four years as the nation's chief executive.

According to Bernama TV's statement today, the documentary will also highlight Najib's leadership pattern and his efforts to unite the people under the concept of 1Malaysia, just like his father, the late Tun Abdul Razak Hussein, who emphasized on national unity as the core of his administration when he was the second prime minister of Malaysia.

The documentary produced by Editor Ahmad Kamal Dahalan will be broadcast at 9.30pm on Tuesday, with repeat shows scheduled for 1.30pm and 9.30pm (Wednesday), 9.30pm (Thursday), 9.30pm (Friday) and 1.30pm (Saturday).

Bernama TV, which offers news in four languages - Malay, English, Tamil and Mandarin - can be watched on Astro Channel 502.
