KUALA LUMPUR, April 28 (Bernama) - Only the Barisan Nasional (BN) can safeguard the interest of Malaysian Armed Forces (ATM) veterans as the party has given them various forms of assistance after retirement.

President of Ex-Servicemen's Association (PBTM) Admiral (R) Tan Sri Mohd Anwar Mohd Nor said the BN government is sensitive and concerned for the welfare of ex-servicemen and their families.

"We pray that the BN government continues to rule the country as we believe only BN can champion ATM veterans as it has been proven over the years," he said at 'Gema Patriotik' mammoth rally at Putra World Trade Centre here Sunday.

The event launched by Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin was also attended by Defence Minister Datuk Seri Ahmad Zahid Hamidi and Veterans Affairs Department director-general Datuk Zulkifli Mazlan.

Mohd Anwar said the 'Gema Patriotik' rally is aimed at restoring and enhancing the spirit of patriotism among ATM veterans.
