JOHOR BAHRU, April 29 (Bernama) -- Barisan Nasional (BN) has big plans for Johor and wants the people in the state to give a strong mandate to it in the general election this Sunday, said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

The Prime Minister, who is also BN chairman, said the people of Johor must make a wise choice on Sunday because their decision would have a deep impact on the future of the state.

"We (BN) have a vision and big plans for the people of Johor. Its big, we have big plans for Johor, choose wisely on May 5 because it will have an impact on the future of Johor," he told a gathering at Kolej Universiti Selatan here today.

According to Najib, a wrong decision on May 5 would not only derail the momentum of development in Johor but would also create a new political culture in Johor.

Najib said the people of Johor would face a new political culture if the opposition was given the opportunity to set foot in Johor in the election, which would be politics of confrontation and disunity.
