ALOR SETAR, April 30 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today gave the Barisan Nasional's (BN) firm commitment to bring major changes to Kedah if the coalition is given the mandate to helm the state after Sunday's general election.

The prime minister said Kedah should rightfully enjoy major progress and development and not merely known as "rice bowl" state.

He said the time had come for Kedahans to opt for BN in Sunday's election.

"As BN chairman, I want to see Kedah progressing like other states. If it remains only as a "rice bowl" state, it appears as though there's no planning.

"We will surely bring transformation and major changes to Kedahans," he said when opening Sekolah Kebangsaan Taman Awana in Pokok Sena, near here, today.

Najib said he had a lot of ideas and plans to introduce changes in Kedah.

"This is not a problem if BN is mandated to govern the state," he said. Without elaborating on what was done by the PAS-led state government in the last five years, Najib said the BN wanted to bring transformation in Kedah, including in the Pokok Sena parliamentary constituency.

"That's why we dare to come out with a report card to evaluate our achievements for the people to know.

"The report card means achievements, evaluation on our performance. The people can see and assess one by one. So, the best choice is to vote in BN," he added.
