KUANTAN, May 4 (Bernama) -- Barisan Nasional's (BN) candidate for the Kuantan parliamentary seat Datuk Mohamed Suffian Awang has hit on a 'magical' way to entertain the audience at his campaign rallies.

He hired magician Kabir Khan Mohamad Reaz, 28, from Penang, a well known name in the industry who has performed at the Magic Castle Club in Hollywood and in Las Vegas.

"It is my way of entertaining the people after my campaign rallies," said Mohamed Suffian, who is also Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's political secretary.

Kabir Khan said he was very touched by Mohamed Suffian's invitation to participate in his election campaign.

"This is a valuable experience for me as it's the first time I'm performing in villages and entertaining people from all walks of life," he said.

He started his career at the tender age of seven and later made his debut at a corporate dinner show.

Kabir Khan also performed at several luxury hotels in the United Arab Emirates on the invitation of the Abu Dhabi Tourism Authority in 2009.

"I plan to share my skills through the Rakan Muda programme one day so that others can perform abroad like me," he said.

Citing David Copperfield as his inspiration, Kabir Khan, who is the director of Business Magic Worldwide (M) Sdn Bhd, said he would be performing in London and Dubai later this year.
