MELAKA, May 4 (Bernama) -- Some 485 more members of PKR in Batu Hampar in the Bukit Katil parliamentary constituency have resigned from the party and expressed their support for the Barisan Nasional (BN).

A representative, Tuah Shah Abdul Rahman, said they had lost confidence in PKR which he claimed only made empty promises.

Last March, the Batu Hampar PKR branch was dissolved after 143 PKR members quit the party, he told reporters following a meeting with Melaka BN chairman Datuk Seri Mohd Ali Rustam at Seri Bendahara, here.

Mohd Ali, who is the Melaka chief minister, said the resignation of the PKR members augured well for the BN in achieving a major victory at the polls tomorrow.
