KUALA LUMPUR, May 8 (Bernama) -- The Malaysian government Wednesday condemned Israel's air strike on Syria on Sunday, causing many civilian deaths, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

The statement said the air strike launched without provocation is a serious violation of the territorial integrity of a sovereign country and violation of international law and the United Nations (UN) charter.

While denouncing the air strike, Najib said Malaysia joined other countries in urging the UN Security Council to take immediate action against the violation to prevent the Middle East conflict from escalating.

The Zionist regime claimed that the air strike which killed many Syrians was aimed at stopping sophisticated weapons from reaching the Hezbollah group.
