KUCHING, May 9 (Bernama) -- A total of 3.2 million visitors have visited 20 museums managed by the National Museum Department throughout last year, its director-general Datuk Ibrahim Ismail said.

He said it also meant that the target of the department's key performance indicator (KPI) for 2012 had been met.

"This year we target to have 3.3 million visitors," he told a press conference on the national-level International Museum Day 2013 celebration here today.

Also present was Sarawak Museum Department director Ipoi Datan.

Among the 20 museums managed by the department are the National Museum, National Textile Museum, Lembah Bujang Archeology Museum, Labuan Marine Museum, Customs Museum, Galeria Perdana, Architecture Museum, National Automobile Museum, Lukut Museum, Chimney Museum and Nature Museum.
