BATU PAHAT, May 9 (Bernama) - Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) advisor Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim is sowing politics of hate among the people to achieve his ambition to become Prime Minister.

Umno Supreme Council member Dr Mohd Puad Zarkashi said young people were trapped in the opposition leader's game causing many to reject the government in the 13th general election (GE13).

"I'm really concerned with the political situation at present with the DAP playing race politics while Anwar with his divide and rule tactic," he said after visiting a road resurfacing project in Kampung Parit Kangkung that he promised before GE13.

This situation caused the people to overlook government development efforts as they were influenced by irrational racial hatred that is detrimental to the country's future.

Mohd Puad also slammed Anwar for dissatisfaction with GE13 results with allegations of fraud when they still remained in power in Kelantan, Selangor and Penang.

"Anwar wanted to make a road show like last night in Kelana Jaya with the slogan 'fraud', despite winning the three states. Is the election result for Batu Pahat parliamentary seat also a fraud?"

In GE13, former deputy education minister Mohd Puad of BN lost to Mohd Idris Jusi of PKR with majority of 1,732 votes.
