KUALA LUMPUR, May 14 (Bernama) -- In a move to support various humanitarian projects, Malaysia Airlines (MAS) donated RM40,000 to Mercy Malaysia through the MH Walk-A-Fund, the on-going fund raising campaign called "Change for Charity", held at its academy on Sunday. In a statement today, MAS said the contributions were sought from Malaysia Airline's guests both on-board and at the national carrier's ticketing counters. The Group Chief Executive Officer, Ahmad Jauhari Yahya and President of Mercy Malaysia, Datuk Dr Ahmad Faizal Mohd Perdaus graced the MH Walk-A-Fund. The 6km walk took its participants around the Kelana Jaya Park and surrounding areas and returned to the Malaysia Airlines academy at approximately 9.30am. Malaysia Airlines and Mercy Malaysia have been in partnership since 2004 to provide support and relief to victims of natural disasters. The 'Change for Charity' project highlights the plight of vulnerable communities and gives Malaysia Airlines' guests an opportunity to do good for a very worthy and needy cause. Funds collected are then channelled directly and wholly to MERCY Malaysia's Humanitarian Fund, which is used for various MERCY Malaysia projects around the world.
