KOTA KINABALU, May 18 (Bernama) -- The government will provide assistance to local youth in achieving success and realising their aspirations, said Sabah Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman.

He said the Barisan Nasional (BN) government under the leadership of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak was aware that the youth were a crucial asset in the country's development.

"The government believes in the importance of keeping the youth on the right track to progress.

"Hence, we will provide whatever form of assistance they need to succeed and realise their aspirations," he told reporters after launching the state-level Youth Day 2013 celebrations at the Kota Kinabalu Sports Complex here Saturday.

He urged the youth not to be easily influenced by irresponsible propaganda and also advised them to look to the future and support the government in its development initiatives for them.
