KUALA LUMPUR, May 21 (Bernama) -- The MIC is still relevant as a Barisan Nasional (BN) component party to represent the Indian community despite its dismal performance in the 13th general election, said its strategic director, S. Vell Paari.

"Many people are saying that MIC is irrelevant. To me, if it is not relevant, the people will not talk about MIC and when they do not stop talking about MIC, the fact is, it is still relevant.

"When something is wrong, the people will be asking where is MIC, where is the voice of MIC... the people will look for MIC," he told Bernama after an interview with Bernama TV (Tamil edition) on the 'Hello Malaysia' programme at Wisma Bernama here Tuesday.
