KUALA LUMPUR, May 21 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has congratulated four Felda youths on their success in scaling world's tallest mountain Mount Everest this morning.

The prime minister said the achievement of the Felda Everest 2013 climbers, accompanied by two instructors, had inspired the entire Felda community.

"Congratulations to four Felda youths and their coaches for conquering Mount Everest today. The success is an inspiration to the entire Felda community," he said in his tweet Tuesday.

According to sources, the youngest climber, Mohd Nasuha Shamsuddin, 21, reached a height of 8,848 metres from sea level at 8.31am (2.05am Malaysian time).

This was followed by Mohamad Asyraf Mohd Halim, 25, at 8.48am (3am Malaysian time) and Muhammad Hafizuddin Ibrahim, 22, at 9.11am (3.25am Malaysian time).

They were part of a team of five from Felda in Negeri Sembilan, Johor and Pahang, in the expedition organised by the Malaysia Seven Continent Exploration Club (KE7B).

The expedition which began on April 2, was also supported by Felda Youth Council and Felda Global Venture Holding.
