SHAH ALAM, May 22 (Bernama) -- Selangor police have yet to be notified of a Pakatan Rakyat gathering in Petaling Jaya on Saturday said Selangor Acting Police Chief Datuk A. Thaiveegan.

Thaiveegan told reporters Wednesday that the organisers, said to be organising the gathering because they were unhappy with the results of the 13th General Election, must notify the police 10 days before the event.

"We urge all parties to respect the law and what is important is peace and public safety. We will not issue them any warning," he said.
