KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak tweeted a congratulatory message to the Malaysian winners of the Asean International Film Festival & Awards (AIIFA) yesterday.

"Congratulations to the four winners on receiving the Asean International Film Festival & Awards.

"You have made the country proud," he said in another tweet.

Malaysia took home four awards at the prestigious AIIFA for best screenplay, best actor, best comedy film and best action film.

Dain Iskandar won best screenplay for the movie Bunohan while Shaheizy Sam was best actor for his role in Songlap.

Istanbul Aku Datang by Bernard Chauly was best comedy, while Songlap by Effendee Mazlan was best action film.

Najib also wished all those celebrating Easter yesterday.

"I would like to wish all Malaysian Christians a happy & meaningful Easter Day," he tweeted.

The prime minister also took a short break from his busy schedule to enjoy lunch with his family at the Little Penang Cafe, the Curve in Mutiara Damansara, yesterday.

Najib, his wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, and children, Norashman Razak and Nooryana Najwa and her fiancé, Daniar Nazarbayev, spent an hour at the restaurant.

They ordered assam laksa, Siam laksa, the aromatic chicken set, Penang hokkien prawn mee, iced Milo, cincau and barley, with fruit rojak for dessert.

Their hour-long presence at the restaurant drew a great deal of attention from shoppers, who took the opportunity to chat and take photographs with them.
